CLOUD NATIVE
COMPUTING FOUNDATION

Brasil's Largest Kubernetes and cloud native event

Join us for Kubernetes Community Days Brasil to bring together international and local experts with adoperts, developers, and practitioners of cloud native technologies.

Benefits of sponsoring
- Extend your organization's visibility and presence to the developers, architects, and technical leaders in Brasil
- Opportunity to network with quality, regionally targeted attendees during the event
- Associate your brand with one of the fastest growing technology communities
- Support and engage with the ecosystem around many of the most popular open source projects

All sponsorship funds will be used for certification scholarships for attendees, with the goal of increasing Brasilian participation in the global Kubernetes community
